

CIVITAS

STUDIA Z FILOZOFII POLITYKI

Nr 15

Warszawa 2013

Table of contents

Editor's foreword

7

BARBARA A. MARKIEWICZ

On revolution once again

11

ANNA KRZYNÓWEK-ARNDT

Civil Revolution in Hannah Arendt's perspective versus paradoxes of political action

29

W. JULIAN KORAB-KARPOWICZ

Politics and time – the clash of epochs: traditional society, modernity and postmodernity

51

TOMASZ GRZEGORZ GROSSE

The potential for revolutions in Europe

71

AGNIESZKA NOGAL

Solidarity as a political value

99

PIOTR KOŁODZIEJCZYK

New Deal as a revolution phenomenon according to Garet Garrett's The Revolution Was

117

JOLANTA SAWICKA

A permanent revolution in Claude Lefort's view

141

MICHAŁ R. WĘSIERSKI

A few remarks on the crisis and the need for philosophy of politics

151

DOROTA HALINA KUTYŁA

The cultural origins of the concept of a warrior

179

REVIEWS

AGNIESZKA NOGAL

The grass is always greener...

(Włodzimirz Bernacki: Political thought of the First Polish Republic)

193

EMILIA KACZMAREK

Hurricanes, cannibals and stock brokers – how to write a popular philosophical book

(Michael J. Sandel: Justice. What's the right thing to do?)

201

JOWITA RADZIŃSKA

Possible relationship between solidarity and a civil society

(Karolina Ciechorska-Kulesza, Radosław Kossakowski, Paweł Łuczeczko, eds.: Culture of solidarity. Sociological and anthropological analyses of Solidarity's cultural heritage)

207

BARTOSZ FINGAS

The struggle between economics and philosophy

(Łukasz Hardt: Studies on realistic philosophy of economics)

220

TOMASZ SOSNOWSKI

Triviality of pragmatism and the beauty of American hope

(Richard Rorty: Philosophy and social hope)

232

KARTARZYNA ANNA KLIMOWICZ

With equality life is better

(Richard Williamson, Kate Pichett: The spirit level)

242

Abstracts

253