

KULTURA i SPOŁECZEŃSTWO

KWARTALNIK

TOM LVIII
NR 2

KWIECIEŃ–CZERWIEC 2014
WARSZAWA

CONTENTS

Dorota Rancew-Sikora, Water—On the Fragmentation of Experience	3
Grażyna Woroniecka, Cultural Certainty and the Natural Environment: The Example of Water	23
Ewa Masłowska, The Female Element in the Anthropocosmic Fertility Set: Water, Earth, the Moon, and Woman (in Polish Folk Culture)	37
Bogna Dowgiałło, Bathing as a Social and Cultural Practice: What the Body Feels When Acted Upon by Water	59
Maciej Kowalewski, The Eroticizing of the Seaside Vacation: Nudity on Postcards from Polish Resorts	73
Marta Cobel-Tokarska, Summer on the Black Sea: Narrations of Contemporary Polish Tourists	91
Piotr Matczak, Collective Actions Concerning Water: The Difficulty of Cooperation, as Illustrated by the Water Associations of Wielkopolska Province	115
Marta Koperska-Kośmicka, Water as an Element Shaping Material Culture: Żuławy Wiślane in Archival Cartographic Material	133
Karolina Ciechorska-Kulesza, Is Water a Dividing or Unifying Element? On the Real and Metaphorical Bridges of Żuławy and the Vistula Spit	143
Ewa Nowicka, Lake Baikal Unites Us, Lake Baikal Divides Us: Buryats in Regard to Lake Baikal	161
Radosław Kossakowski, Malwina Krajewska, Crab Fishers in the Embrace of Pop Culture: On the Narrative of the Reality Series Deadliest Catch	179
Aleksandra Nowakowska-Kutra, Bottled Water: A Sociological Analysis	199

FACTS AND PROBLEMS

Maria Wieruszewska, Memories of Professor Kazimiera Zawistowicz-Adamska on the Thirtieth Anniversary of Her Death	219
*
Books Review and Discussions	225