

CONTENTS

Robert Traba, Where Are We? A New Opening in Polish Studies on Collective Memory and their European Context	3
*
Kornelia Kończal, Joanna Wawrzyniak, Polish Memory Studies: Traditions, Concepts, (dis)Continuities	11
Christian Gudehus, Harald Welzer, On the Theory and Method of Studying Cultural Communication	65
Miroslav Hroch, Between National and European Identity — A View of a Skeptic	77
Magdalena Saryusz-Wolska, On Sources of City Memory in Contemporary World	93
Christoph Hamann, Index, Icon and Symbol: On the Relationship of Photography, History (Time) and Memory	107
Jerzy Mikułowski Pomorski, Museum: Transformation of the Medium against the Background of Convergence Processes	129
Zuzanna Bogumił, Memorial versus Simulation of the Past — World War II in Historical Exhibitions	149
Katarzyna Jagodzińska, Historical Constructions for New Museums: Museum Trends at the Beginning of 21st Century	171
*
Tomasz Stryjek, “A War for Memory”: About the Events of the 30s–50s of the 20th Century in the Central and Eastern Europe 2005–2010 — Policy Strategies of Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Ukraine and Russia	191
Joanna Michlic, “Remembering to Remember,” “Remembering to Benefit,” “Remembering to Forget:” The Variety of Memories of Jews and the Holocaust in Post-Communist Poland	225
Antoni Sułek, Harvest of “Golden Harvest”	247
Jakub Knyżewski, Constructing a Region’s History: Past and Memory in the Olsztyn “Borussia” Magazine	263
*
Modi Memorandi: An Interdisciplinary Lexicon of Collective Memory Terms ...	275
*
Books Review and Discussions	277