

A map of Europe with a dark blue outline of the continent. Ten yellow five-pointed stars are placed across the map, primarily in the central and eastern regions, representing the 'Three Seas' area. The text and logos are overlaid on the map.

The Three Seas Initiative

An original concept of regional cooperation in different approaches

ed. Agnieszka
Orzelska-Stączek

Institute of Political Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword – Ambassador Gediminas Varvuolis | 7 |
| Introduction – Agnieszka Orzelska-Stączek | 11 |
| Ivan Koprić, Iva Lopižić Croatia and the Three Seas Initiative: Harvesting the Geographical Position? | 19 |
| Vít Dostál The Czech Republic and the Three Seas Initiative | 55 |
| Matthew Crandall The Three Seas Initiative and Estonia after the Outbreak of War in Ukraine | 73 |
| Miklós Mitrovits The Hungarian Reception of the Three Seas Initiative in Academic Publications | 85 |
| Andrzej Pukszo, Robertas Eismontas Lithuania and the Three Seas Initiative: From Skepticism to Leadership | 109 |
| Łukasz Lewkowicz, Marlena Gołębiowska The Three Seas Initiative as a Subject of Academic and Expert Discourse in Poland | 133 |
| Mihai Sebe The Three Seas Initiative: A Romanian Perspective From Riga to Bucharest | 159 |
| Tomáš Strážay Agenda Setter or Agenda Follower? Slovakia's Perception of the 3SI and Other Regional Formats | 181 |
| Conclusions – Agnieszka Orzelska-Stączek | 203 |
| Literature | 209 |
| Notes about the Authors | 221 |
| Index of names | 225 |